Mears' Meanderings

Hello Mineral Springs,

When we embarked on this journey in Global Methodism, we prayed for God's great love and mercy to lead us into new horizons. Psalm 51 says 'Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. 11 Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me. 12 Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me.'

Where does that begin at the heart level of each person. Our brothers and sisters have met in Costa Rica for the first General Conference of the Global Methodist Church. People representing all corners of the earth have conducted powerful work to help guide what we shall be as a denomination moving forward. As important as that work was, it was the move of the Spirit that was the true highlight of this conference. Per reports of our representatives, we have heard that revival began during these formative days. Listen to this first hand account from Mark Swayze

A Personal View at the GMC Convening Conference: "After leading some of the New Room Conference (Wednesday/Thursday), I struggled on the plane to Costa Rica. I've grown anxious about flying, but I've found freedom over the past few years. This wasn't anxiety; it was different. Every mile closer to San Jose, I felt the weight of something increasing—something palpable.

Speaking of prophetic words: I remember at New Room 2021 when I would see Billy Abraham for the last time. He approached me after a worship set and said, "Mr. Swayze, I must tell you something. I don't think I'll ever get to see the great revival of the Methodist people (then he looked at me the only way Billy could) and said, "but I believe you will." He was right. This week, it has begun.

By Sunday morning, I was being crushed. I could barely focus or breathe. Worship began, and I knew I had to sing a song at the end of the service. When communion was nearly over, I considered inviting someone else to sing. It was that crushing. My legs trembled, my heart beat out of control, and I could barely keep myself together. "What was happening?" I panicked. "God, what is happening inside me?" I've always longed for the Holy. Sang about it. I've invited the "more of God." I realize the following statement isn't the proper response, but here goes: I am not sure I still want it. It keeps ripping me alive. At that moment, I felt Isaiah's words, "Woe is me, Wretched man, I am!" I then felt I had no choice but to speak. It was my turn to lead "Goodness of God."

I'll be honest; I don't remember much. It felt like I was emptied of strength while observing a heavenly reality. A cloud hovered over our gathering (I can still see it), and the Lord said, "It's Holy Love, and it's for my people." I don't remember much else after that. I remember seeing spiritual rain (Holy Love) begin to fall, and I knew I was supposed to start the song. And then something happened. People began to run to the altar and lay prostrate before God. Women and men began to weep and cry out to the Lord. My dear friend Matt began to pray over people with trembling travail. I saw what seemed to be fire resting on him. I knew God was with us. The weight of His Presence filled the room.

Then, out of my mouth rose a melody. "Love Divine all Loves Excelling" as I sang those words repeatedly over the people. Holy. May I be honest? People thanked me for my leadership the rest of that day. Little did they know I almost didn't make it. And I'm still shaken by it. As I write this in my hotel room (at 11:15 pm), I still wish he used someone else.

Most people don't know that this weight has been building in me for years. God is slowly teaching me how to carry it, almost building spiritual muscles to handle it. I remember telling Steve Seamands at Awakening Project in 2021 that I was not sure I could keep carrying this, that it was breaking me. He simply said, "Good."

There was no explanation as he smiled; he just told me to keep moving forward.

Over the last few years, I've thought I was losing my mind. With every move of God comes a crushing weight of His Presence. And it's not me dancing in the joy of the Lord (LOL). It's not a river of love that I'm wading in. It's not a warm hug. It's Him. It's fire. It's Refining, and it's Holy. Even as I write this, I want to get low. Everyone wants authority, but nobody wants to be emptied.

Everyone wants His Presence, not realizing that if He answers you, your only option is "death to self." Holy must replace sin. Holy Love must overwhelm unholy affections. And when the flesh dies, it does so with great drama. So, I've come to this vulnerable conclusion: I believe God is answering the cries of the Wesleyans.

I believe we have a grand depositum to share with the world. And... I believe the Global Methodist Church will be led by the emptied—the carriers of the Holy—the consecrated people.

I thought this was a season for me; He is teaching me; it's a requirement."

Now what about us at the local church. Will we grab ahold of the refining fire of the Holy Spirit and let it guide us to repentance and lead us toward Holiness of heart and mind? Will these be the days of restoration of Christ's people beginning? Will you commit to praying for a deeper connection with the relationship offered through the Holy Spirit? Create in us clean hearts and renew our spirits within.

Your brother in hopefully renewal,

Rev. L Alan Mears

METHODIST WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

The Methodist Women's Fellowship will meet on Thursday October 10, 2024. We will meet at 9:30 for fellowship and our regular meeting at 10:00.

What an event we experienced in September. Once again, our Salad Supper was a success. Great food, fellowship and speaker. Our own Nancy Darsey presented a wonderful program about her prison ministry. Her love for this ministry was evident. So inspiring and eye opening. Thank you, Nancy.

Oh, who can forget the delicious and varied salads. Is it September yet? Can we do this every month? Asking for a friend.

School is beginning so the Back Pack Ministry is kicking off. Back Pack provides for Parkwood Middle School. Donations can be left in the FLC, Sanctuary Breezeway or the office. Please join us to provide for those who are in need.

A reminder about the Back Pack Ministry, please do not donate food in glass jars.

Becky informed us of an upcoming meeting of Women in The Global church. This is a meeting of the Piedmont District Group. The meeting will be held in Greensboro, NC on October 4, 2024.

A reminder, we sell the best knives in the world along with flavoring. These things help us support our Mission Projects. Any time is tomato season....try our tomato slicer. Best in the world. Honest!

Thank you for your support.

WELLNESS CIRCLE

Welcome to fall, finally.

I wanted to provide a few updates to some of the programs we have going on in the Wellness Ministry.

In August we had scheduled Julia Ernst, Oncology Case Manager to come speak with us about supporting those we love as they deal with a cancer diagnosis.

Unfortunately, we had to reschedule that due to bad weather. It looks like we will be getting Julia back with us at our November 6th meeting. I will be posting more information about that in both the bulletin and the November Pipeline.

I know we post the grief group information in the bulletin each week, but I wanted to put a little extra information in the pipeline about the group. The grief groups were created to make a safe place to talk about and process feelings of grief. We all experience loss, and we all experience it differently. Finding a place to share these feelings and challenges help in the healing process. If you have questions about our groups or would like to discuss attending, please contact me through the church office. We have two grief groups that meet each month. Our morning group meets the second Monday of each month at 10:00am in the Wesley Room. The evening group meets the fourth Monday evening of each month at 6:30pm in the Wesley Room.

The other group I want to highlight is the Cancer Support Group. This group was created in response to several members of our congregation working through their own cancer diagnosis and treatment. Cancer seems to be all around us and finding a group of people to share this difficult diagnosis with is so important. Many have told me that until you hear the “C” word from your doctor, it’s impossible to understand how it changes your life. In this group, we discuss and process the feelings that go along with the diagnosis and treatment process. Some of our group members have already completed the treatment process and want to support others as they begin this walk. Some of the words I have heard from attendees regarding this group are educational, supportive, loving, and spiritual. If you or someone you love are working through cancer, please come let us be part of your healing. The cancer support group meets the first Wednesday of each month at 6:30pm in the Wesley Room.

With so much going on in our church, it’s easy to forget all the opportunities to both serve and be served. If you or anyone you know would like to talk about seeking some emotional support, please reach out. Consider whether one of these groups may provide the support you need, and remember, you can always find me by calling the church office. I am here to help.

Blessings

Rodney Little, MHDL

Grief Support Group will meet at 10am on Monday, October 14th, in the Asbury room and at 6:30pm on Monday, October 28th in the Wesley Room in the church office.

Cancer Support group meets the first Wednesday of the month, October 2nd at 6:30pm in the Asbury Room.

SPRINGERS——55 and OLDER

What a wonderful luncheon we had in September!!!!

Our first month has gone really well. The children are learning and growing and the preschool is full of happy sounds.

The kids have spent this month learning classroom routines. Our Chapel lessons in September focused on God is the Creator. We are learning Genesis 1:1 as our memory verse.

The preschool is looking for substitutes. Anyone who is interested and available weekday mornings, reach out to Tammy, mineralspringspreschool@gmail.com

NEWS FROM GMC

“So The World Will Know...”

These are exciting and challenging days. All of us are under a divine commission “so the world will know” the Matchless Name and the unfathomable love of Jesus Christ, Lord of the Universe and Hope of the World.

Many in the GMC world are currently “running at Mach 2 with their hair on fire.” It’s “Go Time”! The long-awaited 2024 Convening Conference of the GMC arrives this week, September 20-26. We’re about to turn the corner from “provisional” to more “permanent”, from a looser relational network to policies, from drinking and sloshing around in the new wine of the Holy Spirit’s outpouring to making the new wineskins so this new wine can be more reliably and regularly available to others. “So the world will know”, right?

The Convening Conference of the Global Methodist Church in San Jose, Costa Rica has a lot of social media chatter about legislation, the nature and structure of the episcopacy, etc. This week as delegates and observers make their way to San Jose and others of us are awaiting the outcomes of the GMC Convening Conference, let’s all take time to “withdraw to a lonely place” to pray. Join us as we pray for the Global Methodist Church..

You can livestream the Convening Conference via the GMC YouTube channel here.

The Trustees want to thank everyone for helping to take care of our beautiful Campus. Projects that are coming up will be roofing the Parsonage, and upgrading the bus and van. Several Eagle Scout projects will also be started in the next few months. Thanks to everyone for keeping, our thermostats set correctly, lights off and doors locked at night.

Colossians 3:23-24

²³ Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters, ²⁴ since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving.
